Judging

The panel of judges (a full list will appear on the ASA website) will be looking for projects which show innovation and design excellence, irrespective of size, type and whether new or adapted. Consideration will be given to design aesthetics, effectiveness of function, detailing and sustainability. Judging will be in two phases. It is intended that all shortlisted projects will be visited by the panel of judges. ASA reserves the right not to grant an award. The judges decision will be final.

The architect and client/commissioning organisation of each award winning project will be awarded certificates. Award winners and commendations will be announced at the annual ASA Dinner on 11 March 2011 at The Park Inn, Aberdeen.
